

eternal song of the wanderer

walk in the step
of the mother
carrying her baby
on her back
the beat of the drum
of her heart
is steady
like the undulation
of the hills
caressed by ancient rivers...
listen for the cadence
of the sun
in its journey
that never ends
when night falls
and the song fades
follow the rhythm
of the moon
when your voice
disappears like a bird
look into the heavens
and let the stars
lighten your load...
